Dear Parent/Carer

Re: The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time

I have booked to take Year 12 and Year 13 Drama students to see The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-time at the Piccadilly Theatre on Thursday 24 January.

The cost is £23 per student, and as such it is a relatively expensive trip despite the discount for a school group booking. However, as the play is a set text for A Level Drama, it really is an unmissable opportunity for our students to see this production which is on for a limited period in the West End. Seeing the production will give our students a huge advantage in writing about the play.

We will leave school at 12.30pm to walk to Chislehurst Station. We will catch the 12.56pm train to Charing Cross and walk to the theatre from there. The performance starts at 2.30pm and will finish at approximately 5pm. We will return to Chislehurst Station via Charing Cross, arriving back at approximately 6.15pm. I will be able to confirm a more exact time for our return nearer the time. Students will need to bring their Oyster card, topped up with enough money to pay for the return trip to London, and also a packed lunch to eat on the train as there will be no time for a meal break between arrival in central London and the start of the performance.

The deadline for payment for this trip is Friday 2 November. Payments can be made on WisePay. As the trip is an essential part of the A Level Drama course, it is vital that all students participate, so please email me at hstanley@e21c.co.uk if you have any financial concerns, or any other questions.

Yours faithfully
